

Soul Music: Songs for the journey home
September 10, 2006 - Pastor Tim Wood

A Song for the Night - Psalm 134

1. There are two key words to remember.

- Barak -
- Amad -
- These two words sum up the Christian life.

2. Three practical lessons from Psalm 134

Personal meditation & Small Group questions for the week of September 10th.

In Tim's message he said, "I believe we have a summation of the Christian life in Psalm 134: we are to kneel and bless the Lord and stand to serve the Lord."

1. How does kneeling and blessing, followed by standing and serving bring blessing and praise to the Lord?
2. Have you ever been led to praise God in the night? What was the cause of such a stirring?
3. How can you kneel and bless God, then stand and serve Him in the dark places that surround you?
4. How have you been blessed by God in worshiping and serving the Lord?
5. What might God be saying to you through this message?

This Week's Meditation: Read Acts 16:16-40 about Paul and Silas and how they worshipped and served God in a very dark hour. Learn how the Lord blessed them.
