Message Notes

Small Group & Personal Bible Study

Memory Verse: Matthew 28:19
"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."

Study Questions:
Read Matthew 28:18-20 very carefully
In verse 19, the Greek word for go is poreuō, which implies as you are going. This may clarify your understanding of the great commission.

1. As you think about each phrase in the great commission, what is Jesus telling us to do?

2. Who do you think is to go (poreuō) according to this verse? Is Jesus talking to all disciples or just to the eleven? Does the Bible speak to all people or just those it was written to at the time?

3. When we go, what are we to do? Can anyone make disciples? Can anyone baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit? Can anyone teach others to obey the commands of Jesus?

4. When we go, what promise do we have from Christ found in verse 20?

5. Who is God is placing in your heart right now as your mission field. Where are you called to go to? Are you willing to follow what Jesus has commissioned you for?
