

Mustard and Yeast

Matthew 13:31-33

“He told them another parable: The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. Though it is the smallest of all your seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and perch in its branches. He told them still another parable: The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into a large amount of flour until it worked through the dough.”

1. Mustard – Small seed; Big plant
2. Yeast – Small measure; Big result

Memory Verse: Ephesians 3:20

“Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us. “

Read Matthew 13:31-33

Lesson:

1. What do you learn from these verses?
2. Our memory verse, Ephesians 3:20, says God is able to do immeasurably more than I could even ask him to do. What does this truth tell you about His kingdom and how we fit into it?
3. On a piece of paper, make two columns of numbered lists. In the first column write at the top GOD, and then list everything you know that requires God’s intervention. In the second column, write DISCIPLES, and then list everything you know that requires your intervention to happen.
