This Sunday at EVC – 9 a.m. or 10:45 a.m.

With Easter only 5 weeks away, I want to begin tracing the footsteps of Jesus as He journeys to the cross. The details of His journey are recorded in John 18-19. The section we will study this Sunday brings us to Jesus' arrest in the garden of Gethsemane. Who arrested whom? The ministry in the upper room was over. Jesus' intercessory prayer had ended. Jesus and His disciples headed for the garden and Jesus is moving toward the cross. The imminent events are of ultimate importance because none of the things Jesus promised during His ministry would be possible without His journey to the cross. Things like: the promise of eternal life, the sending of the Holy Spirit as a Comforter, the preparation of a place for us, the treasures of His grace and wisdom...all are dependent on His death and resurrection. I hope you will join the journey as we trace the Footprints of Jesus – John 18:1-11.
