This Sunday at EVC – 9 a.m. or 10:45 a.m.

We will continue our series on ISSUES from 2 Corinthians. This Sunday we will look at the subject of despair. Paul had every right (if there is a right), to despair. He was pressured, persecuted, abandoned and struck down but he never lost hope, he never gave up. How did Paul maintain such a positive attitude in the midst of all these troubling issues? I believe the key for Paul, and for us, is recognizing what we have and who we are. That's what I want to share with you this Sunday from God's word. I hope to see you here!

News From Student Ministries – REMIX

The students are taking an end of the summer beach trip on August 14 from 1:30 p.m. to 10:45 p.m. The cost is $10 – dinner; snacks and transportation are included in the cost. Sign up by August 10 – Contact Alison for more details – awood@evergreenvalleychurch.org 440-5382.

EVC Golf Tournament – September 11

This year's tournament is at Coyote Creek. Funds will go to support mission work to children in San Jose and in Ethiopia. Pick up a brochure at the church or contact Pastor Ryan ryan.hunt@evergreenvalleychurch.org Sign up your foursome soon.

Men's Retreat – Sept. 24 – 26

This year's retreat is at Redwood Christian camp. It's a great location, good food and outstanding fellowship with other men in our church will be featured. The focus will be on how God can use us to become History Makers. Contact Pastor Ryan for more info – ryan.hunt@evergreenvalleychurch.org

Check out my blog this week. I've posted a short video of what went on at Summer Splash. We had two good weeks of ministry that impacted the lives of these children. Check it out at <http://evcsj.blogspot.com/>
