

O' TASTE AND SEE

CUISINE FOR THE CURIOUS PALLET

For the next few months the H2H team will turn the spotlight on restaurants that we feel have been the Bay Area's best-kept secret. Many of you have decided to leave the fine art of cooking and menu planning to the professionals. This column is an attempt to share your exciting pallet-pleasing meals with all of us. When eating out becomes a drag it's time to explore new spots to delight our tummies. Remember, what may be an old stomping ground for you may be just the ambiance someone else is looking to experience.
